

Matt,, as a practicing OB/GYN physician, I am opposed to House Bill 5098. It's narrow focus and the fact that a standard exists for screening and education for many fetal anomalies makes the bill unnecessary. Thank you for carrying the voice of the physicians who are caring for women and their unborn children.

Mark Lewis, DO

Associate Residency Program Director

Sparrow/Michigan State University OB/GYN Residency